

Each team may have up to two (2) protected players, with the following limitations:

- A team may protect no more than one (1) pitcher and one (1) catcher.
- The Head and Assistant Coach's children are automatically placed on the team roster and do not require a protection form.
- If the Head Coach's child, grandchild, or relative is a known or experienced pitcher or catcher, that player will count toward the protected pitcher/catcher limit, while still allowing up to two total protected players.
- Coaches are responsible for submitting a signed protection form for each protected player prior to the start of the draft.
